Missionaries to the U.S. Military

July 13, 2015

Dear friends and prayer partners,

I'm very sorry for the lateness of this letter. Sheila had a doctor's appointment today to let us know if God's gift to us was going to be a boy or a girl and I was waiting to find out so I could share the news. Unfortunately, this sweet child is a bit more shy and modest than we expected and so we must wait until next month to find out. We really do appreciate your prayers for Sheila, the baby and the pregnancy. However, please add me to your prayers as well. We have to pay our medical deductible up front to continue being seen by the doctor. I know God will meet the need and I'm excited to see how He does it but I've never been good with waiting. I have seen over and over that God's timing is perfect timing but apparently I have more to learn in this area so please pray I learn it quickly.

It's hard to believe it's been thirteen months since we started full time deputation. I walked away from a job making almost six figures a year to full time deputation with only $400 a month coming in. I was terrified but God has met every need, paid every bill, fed us (abundantly) every day and blessed us in so many other ways. This past year, we have been in almost 90 churches. We have met many special people and have been so blessed by the path God has placed us on. We still find people everywhere we go that have never heard a clear presentation of the Gospel but we've also met many good men of God and their flocks doing their best to tell their communities about Jesus Christ. We all have our part to play in The Lord's Army. Thank you for helping us to play ours.

The summer months have been a bit slower for us. This has given us a bit of time at home to fellowship with friends, listen to our pastor preach and take care of some home issues and paperwork. Alana was able to really press hard and finish up 6th grade as well so she's really been able to enjoy the summer. We've still been able to present our ministry in a few churches and have also been taken on by three more churches. We also lost one of our supporting churches to financial issues so please keep them in your prayers. But we are over 22% of our needed support and it is so amazing to watch how God does it. The rest of the summer is still a bit light as far as meetings go but God really has our schedule full from September on.

Please keep us in your prayers and let us know if we can pray for anything specific for you. God Bless!
