Missionaries to the U.S. Military

November 1, 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Another two months have passed and they've been busy months. We've driven over 8000 miles, been in 21 churches and have been so very blessed. We now have 11 percent of our support and God continues to surprise us with the different ways He brings our support in.

We presented at a church in Kansas then had 2 days before our next meeting with no where to stay. A friend told us about a camp meeting we could attend so we drove down and attended. While there we got to see the Holy Spirit truly at work including the salvation of a man who had been a member of the church for 44 years. Four different pastors spoke with us and one even booked us for a mission conference on the spot. To top everything off, the host pastor informed us that they wanted to take us on for support because of the way Sheila and Alana just jumped in and started working side by side with the ladies of the church. God truly is amazing and blesses us every day.

While in Kansas we had the privilege of being at a church just outside of Ft. Riley. At the service the men of the church took the time to surround, lay hands on and pray for a soldier who was leaving for Iraq the next day. The women of the church did the same thing for his wife. It was a powerful reminder of what our church and pastor did for us when Sheila and I were stationed in Germany as well as why a church is so vitally important to our service men and women and their families serving overseas. The need is greater than ever as we get closer to Christ's return and those who pay for our rights, privileges and freedoms face greater and greater attacks both physical and spiritual.

Please keep our vehicle in your prayers. It has over 125,000 miles on it and still runs well but it's beginning to have some issues related to mileage and age. However, the drop in gas prices has been a blessing as we travel more each month. When you buy as much gas as we do, every dime saved on a gallon of gas is a big deal. God is good and continues to provide but prayer would be appreciated.

Finally, as we approach the holidays, please remember the military families who will be separated or away from home during this time and pray for their peace, comfort and safety.

Thank you and God Bless,

The Wolfes
